Instructions

All travellers can be identified on a Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) Declaration Card. You may list up to four people living at the same address on one card. Each traveller is responsible for his or her own declaration. Each traveller is responsible for reporting purchased or received abroad (including gifts, alcohol & tobacco). Each traveller is also responsible for reporting currency and/or monetary instruments totaling CAN$10,000 or more that are in his or her actual possession or baggage.

Under the law, failure to properly declare goods, currency and/or monetary instruments brought into Canada may result in seizure action, monetary penalties and/or criminal prosecution. Information provided is collected under the authority of Section 12 of the Customs Act to facilitate compliance with the traveller’s obligation with Subsection 5(3), Reporting of Imported Goods Regulations, and enables the collection of duty and taxes payable on imported goods. This information may be disclosed to other government departments and agencies, police forces and other Countries to facilitate compliance with the traveller’s duty of Section 12 of the Customs Act.

Individuals have the right of access to and/or can make corrections of their personal information under the Privacy Act. The information is described within Info Source, Traveller Declaration Cards Personal information Bank CBSA PPU 018 at http://www.cbsa-asfc.gc.ca/.
